

"It has been a real pleasure meeting you both. Thank you for sharing your beautiful home with us. We really enjoyed our stay and hanging out at your local haunts, and of course being part of the Mardi Gras festivities. Certainly the best way to experience New Orleans and the Mardi Gras festival. Your generous hospitality made us feel welcome and at home. We knew we had come to the right place when Kevin offered us a beer , right after we walked in from our long drive from Houston."
